

The Manual

The Sudbury Rising stars are in the process of formulating a step-by-step guidebook to provide information to new groups wanting to establish their own theatre troupe. Each group is unique and will have its own personality. This guide enables organizers to pick and choose information and templates that can be adapted to suit their troupe's style and needs.

How this manual can help your group...

- tells the story of how we began
- uniform information
- performances
- evaluation
- letterhead
- communications
- sound system
- backstage/on stage management
- songs used at performances
- budgets
- provides terms of reference
- a DVD of performances
- scripts (best practices)
- recruitment flyer
- flyers used to advertise
- press release
- booking checklist
- sponsors
- rehearsals
- props
